The Holy Name Cadets (top) lost their church sponsorship -- and uniforms and equipment -- after the 1958 season. Early in the 1959 season they appeared as the Garfield Cadets in Scout House-type short shorts and knee socks (middle left) and later that season in long white pants with white satin shirts and burgundy trim (middle right). Then in May, 1960, they entered competition in the familiar cadet uniforms that have been worn ever since. Photos by Walter Ermiel from the collection of Ron DaSilva.

Drum Corps Holland, in conjunction with KFMN, ceased running a championship event after the 2000 season. There were several competitions held during the 2001 season in The Netherlands and Germany.

However, a new organization called Drum Corps Europe has been established to run drum and bugle corps and show band competitions in The Netherlands, Germany, Belgium and France. Several spring standstill shows are scheduled for 2002 and summer field shows are planned for the 2003 season.

THE WAY WE WERE

David Welch Don Daber Marching with a DCI Champion
THE 1984 JOURNAL 60 EVENTS IN 80 DAYS

What was it like to tour with the Garfield Cadets? Details of daily life were captured through the eyes of 17-year-old rookie mellophone player David Welch. Thanks to Scooter Firtle, this journal was published in 1995 as the final edition of THE MIDDLE HORN LEADER magazine. This story illustrates "The Way We Were" in 1984.

FIRST CONTEST - Bloomfield, N.J.

JUNE 2
 I DON'T FEEL LIKE A CADET
 SHAKO TOO LARGE
 NO SLEEVE PATCH
 NO SILVER BUCKLE
 CORPS PANTS WERE INCHES TOO LONG
 NO WHITE BUCKS - WHITE SOCKS OVER SNEAKERS

JUNE 29
 OUR PRACTICE FIELD NEAR YPSILANTI, MICH. HAD NEW CHALLENGES FOR THE FIELD-LINING CREW...
 YAP! SORE PD HAVE A FLAT FIELD TO PRACTICE ON... BUT YOU'LL HAVE TO PAKE OFF THE HAY FIRST.

AUG 15
 WHO'S THE DUDE IN THE GAS MASK?
 THE LOCAL DRY CLEANERS PICK'N' UP THE CORPS' UNIFORMS.

AUG. 15
 WHEN GARFIELD ARRIVED IN COLUMBIA SOUTH CAROLINA ALL THE CORPS' UNIFORMS WENT TO THE LOCAL DRY CLEANERS.
 THEY HADN'T BEEN CLEANED FOR 41 COMPETITIONS PREVIOUS AND THE DCI FINALS WERE COMING UP.

FACTS

Don Daber
MANGIONE JAZZ!

AS A FIRST YEAR DRUM CORPS IN 1971 BLUE DEVILS CHOSE A JAZZ REPERTOIRE - ESPECIALLY "LEGEND OF THE ONE-EYED SAILOR" BY CHUCK MANGIONE - THEN AN UNKNOWN JAZZ ARTIST. BOTH THE BLUE DEVILS AND CHUCK MANGIONE ROSE IN POPULARITY ON THEIR JAZZ THEMES.

HOW TO BE A TOP BANAWA!
 DESIGN A NEW RADICAL UNIFORM
 BASED ON THE COSSACK COAT. KEEP THE CORPS COLORS - GOLD, BLACK AND WHITE. THEIR PROGRAM DIRECTOR BOBBY HOFFMAN INTRODUCED THE CORPS TO A LONG YELLOW COAT WITH THE INITIAL B & LARGE BLACK HATS THAT SET A NEW UNIFORM DIRECTION.

artist: Don Daber

THE ROOKIE

THIS IS MY ASSIGNED SEAT... AND IT'S A GREAT ONE!
 BEIN' A ROOKIE DRUMMER - I'M NEVER IDLE
 PRACTICE... PRACTICE... PRACTICE...
 RUDIMENTS, RUDIMENTS, RUDIMENTS

RAT TAT TAT TATT

BUS DRIVERS AND ASPERIN GO TOGETHER...

Toronto-based artist Don Daber has been involved with the drum and bugle corps activity for more than 40 years. He has been a corps publicity director and manager (Toronto Optimists) and an artist for Fleetwood Records, Drum Corps News, db Records and Drum Corps World. These four cartoons represent the work he has done for DCW since 1972 through the series "The Rookie," "Daber's Doodles," "The Way We Were" and "DCI Facts," among others. "The Way We Were" series alone contains more than 200 panels illustrating many historical scenes from the past 80 years.
